Message on Zero Tolerance from the Managing Director

PKSF has been providing support through both financial and non-financial services, including training, education, healthcare, awareness building, nutrition, direct employment linkages, climate change and environmental initiatives, as well as marketing and value chain development. The objective is to deliver comprehensive and inclusive services for the sustained improvement of the livelihoods of low-income people.

Ensuring accountability and transparency at all levels of its operations is of utmost importance to PKSF. The organization maintains a zero-tolerance policy toward fraud, financial mismanagement, and other forms of malpractice by staff members, consultants, contractors, or any other parties directly or indirectly associated with its operations, including the implementation of projects and programmes.
